

Registration

Cracking the Code : Puzzle-like activities in the LOTE classroom

AATF of CNY Fall Workshop

All World Language teachers welcome!

Saturday, October 19, 2019

Chittenango High School

150 Genesee St.

Chittenango, NY 13037

8:30 am - 1:00pm

Presenters:

Janis Labroo, Oneonta Central Schools

Dr. Denise Mahns and Sarah Woodward-Jones, Fayetteville-Manlius Schools

Michael Ashley, Vernon Verona Sherrill Schools

Please complete this registration by clicking the following link <https://forms.gle/fpLDyJJqk7YA3CzF9> by October 15, 2019

Includes light breakfast and lunch.

| | |
|--------------------------------|-----------|
| _____ registered by 10/15..... | $25.00 |
| _____ Walk in | $30.00 |
| _____ Student | no charge |

Schedule

8:30 Coffee/ Registration

8:50 AATF business meeting

9:00 - 10:15 Session one- Break Out Boxes and Crime Scene investigation!

A round table of language educators who will share examples of Breakout Boxes activities in the classroom and a lesson based upon a simulated crime scene. Let your students be the detectives!

10:15-10:30 Pause Café

10:30- 12:00 Session two - Mystery! Janis Labroo

Mystery! An engaging unit for upper levels -- Janis Labroo will present tried and true ideas to expose students to authentic culture, expand their vocabulary and encourage them to "decipher" grammatical topics such as past tense and object pronouns. This unit is culturally-rich, captivating and challenging for students. Examples will be given in English and French.

12:00 - 1:00 pm Lunch : pizza, salad, water and dessert

Scan the QR code to visit our website!

